

Chartered Forensic Practitioner ChFP Application Form

The application form, together with your portfolio, acts as a filter prior to the interview stage. Its purpose is twofold: firstly, it gives the applicant the opportunity to provide details of their current employment and associated competency (skills and knowledge) in order to provide evidence to our Assessment Panel that you are eligible to be called for interview. Secondly it provides information which may contribute to questions you will be asked at interview.¹

Name
Contact Details
Professional Profile (including current area of practice/expertise)
Professional Experience (including years of experience) ²

¹ In the event that you are not called for interview you will be given feedback as to any weaknesses and areas to consider for any future application

² Applicants are expected to have a minimum of 5 years relevant experience.
