60 Years

The Chartered Society of Forensic Sciences Past Presidents Summer Ball

Saturday 15th June 2019
The Majestic Hotel, Harrogate

We welcome members, non-members and their guests to the Past President's Ball to celebrate supporting the forensic science sector for 60 years.

The evening will commence with a drinks reception at 5.45pm, followed by dinner and dancing until the twilight hours.

Guest speakers on the evening include:

Clive Driscoll, Retired Detective Chief Inspector, Metropolitan Police Service ~ 7pm

Retired on 31st May 2014 after completing over 33 years exemplary service with the Metropolitan Police Service. Clive retired as a Detective Chief Inspector and investigated as the Senior Investigating Officer on several high-profile cases obtaining two convictions in the Stephen Lawrence murder. He became the first police officer to obtain a conviction in an Honour Based Violence murder where no body has ever been found. Clive's book "In Pursuit of the Truth" was published in July 2016.

Dr Richard Shepherd, Retired Forensic Pathologist ~ 9pm

Dr Shepherd was a Forensic pathologist for nearly 40 years as a Consultant and Senior Lecturer in Forensic Medicine until he retired in 2016. He has also sat on a number of government advisory boards. He was the forensic expert for the 9/11 and Bali bombings, the Bloody Sunday Inquiry and for the Inquest into the death of Diana, Princess of Wales. His autobiography "Unnatural Causes" was published in September 2018.

Tickets: £75 per person (£140 for two people) or £700 for a table of 10
