DISCIPLINARY REGULATIONS
OF
THE CHARTERED SOCIETY OF FORENSIC SCIENCES

Adopted by Resolution of the Council on the 8th December 1990

1. Interpretation

1.1 In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, 'the Society' means The Chartered Society of Forensic Sciences; 'the Council' means the Council of the Society; 'the Membership/Ethics Committee' (MEC) means the Committee appointed each year at the first Council Meeting following the Annual General Meeting and shall be composed of the Vice President (who will act as Chairman), Honorary Chair of Quality Standards, an Ordinary Member of Council, a Member of the Society (who is not a Council member) and the Honorary Secretary of the Society; 'the Disciplinary Committee' (DC) means the Committee appointed by the Council in accordance with clause 1.14.1 of the Bye Laws. The DC shall comprise the President or another designated officer of the Society, two members of Council and two Members who are not Members of Council; 'Member' means a Professional member in any category referred to in the Bye Laws; 'the Clerk' means any person appointed by the DC to act as its Clerk; 'the Complainant' means the person or body by whom a complaint has been made concerning a member's professional conduct; 'the Respondent' means a member against whom a complaint has been made.

2. Membership/Ethics Committee

- 2.3 Once appointed the Chairman and Committee members shall remain in office until their successors are appointed by the Council. The Council may fill casual vacancies from time to time as they occur.
- 2.4 The MEC shall keep under review current principles of professional conduct, interpret the published guidelines, recommend changes in the guidelines and prepare statements on ethical conduct for publication.
- 2.5 The MEC shall give preliminary consideration of any complaint made against a member and if appropriate shall require Council to appoint a DC.
- 2.6 Whenever the MEC receives a complaint which could relate to a member's Professional conduct then the members of the MEC shall remain in office in respect of that complaint only until the investigation of that complaint has been completed.

3. Disciplinary Committee

- 3.1 Once appointed the members of the DC shall remain in office until the complaint for which the DC has been appointed has been heard and the DC has submitted its report to the Council.
- 3.2 No member shall serve as a member of the MEC and as a member of the DC.

4. Investigation Rules of the Membership/Ethics Committee

- 4.1 If the Honorary Secretary of the Society receives a complaint against a member he shall call for a written statement from the Complainant and on receipt shall transmit it to the Chairman of the MEC.
- 4.2 Whenever the MEC receives a complaint which could relate to a member's professional conduct they shall have the power to call upon such expert advice as it may think necessary to assist in its investigations. The quorum of the MEC shall be three members. Decisions of the MEC shall be a simple majority of votes. The Chairman shall only vote in the event of equality of votes.
- 4.3 The MEC shall investigate the substance of the complaint. If the MEC decides it does not relate to a member's professional conduct or it is a trivial, frivolous or malicious nature it may resolve to take no further action, in which case the Respondent will not be informed that any question of his/her conduct has arisen. This does not preclude the MEC from further investigation of the matter.

- 4.4 In all other cases it shall be the duty of the Honorary Secretary on behalf of the MEC to notify the Respondent of the complaint; and of the nature, particulars and source thereof; and the fact that the complaint or allegation shall be considered by the MEC; and his/her right to submit a written statement to the MEC; and the MEC's powers of investigation under the Bye Laws and these Regulations and its authority in the absence of any exercise of his/her rights, to proceed without further reference to the Respondent provided due notice has been given in accordance with this clause. Should any mitigating circumstances be presented the MEC may delay the process as necessary.
- 4.5 The MEC shall deal only with written submissions. Neither a Complainant nor Respondent nor any representative acting on behalf of either shall have a right of appearance before the MEC.
- 4.6 The Honorary Secretary shall transmit to the MEC the documentary evidence in support of the complaint and any written statement submitted by the Respondent. The Honorary Secretary shall notify the MEC if the Respondent has not availed himself/herself of his/her rights.
- 4.7 When the MEC intends to hold a meeting, at least 28 days clear notice shall be given to all parties unless all parties agree to a shorter period of time.
- 4.8 All parties must be notified by the Honorary Secretary that all written representation must be received at least 7 days prior to the date of the meeting. The representations received after that date will only be considered at the discretion of the Chairman of the MEC.
- 4.9 The MEC shall consider the documents, and may either reach a conclusion forthwith or suspend the consideration from time to time to enable further enquiries to be made. If further enquiries are made the results of such will be made available to all parties by the Honorary Secretary and they will be invited to make observations thereon.
- 4.10 If the MEC considers there is a prima facie case to answer it shall ask the Council to appoint: a DC as set up under clause 1.14.1 of the Bye Laws for further investigation; and instruct the Honorary Secretary as to the action that should be taken; and inform the Complainant and the Respondent.
- 4.11 The MEC shall keep confidential Minutes of its deliberations and decisions.
- 4.12 If at any time during an investigation it becomes known that the facts giving rise to the complaint are sub judice or subject to investigation by any other competent tribunal or body, the Society's investigation may be suspended forthwith until the matter has been resolved elsewhere.
